EASTERN ILLINOIS UNIVERSITY BULLETIN

Number 264

September, 1966

Published six times a year (January, April, July, September, October and November), by Eastern Illinois University, Charleston, Illinois. Entered as second class matter at the Post Office, Charleston, Illinois. Effective date September 1, 1961.

ABOUT EASTERN ILLINOIS UNIVERSITY . . .

Dr. Doudna

Eastern Illinois University, founded in 1895, has grown from the original one building on a 40-acre tract of land to the present 30 major buildings on a 266-acre campus.

Eastern has consistently been ranked as one of the outstanding teacher training institutions in the nation. The university also provides curricula in the liberal arts and awards the B.S., B.A., and M.A. degrees. There are pre-professional programs.

Dr. Quincy Doudna, Eastern's third president, has been EIU's administrative head since 1956.

Eastern is located in Charleston, county seat of Coles County, and rich in Lincoln lore. Charleston has a population of 13,500 and is readily accessible by air, rail and bus to metropolitan centers.

EIU offers intercollegiate competition in 11 sports, and has a complete intramural program open to all students.

Enrollment this year is expected to be 6,000.

To meet the demands of increasing enrollment, Eastern has undertaken an extensive building program. A new men's physical education building, but a part of the program, is the new home of Panther athletics.

DR. WALTER S. LOWELL

Director, School of Health and Physical Education

Guiding Eastern Illinois University's activities in health, physical education and athletics is Dr. Walter S. Lowell, associate professor in physical education. Dr. Lowell joined the staff in 1961 and became chairman of the school in the 1964 reorganization.

Dr. Lowell has a varied background in coaching and physical education. He coached football, basketball and baseball for two years at Sebawaing, Mich., and seven years at Grand Haven, Mich. He also worked one year at a settlement house in Kalamazoo, Mich., and one year as a recreation worker at a reform school in Lansing, Mich.

He was backfield coach for EIU football before assuming duties as the school's chairman.

A veteran of World War II and the Korean conflict, Dr. Lowell is a commander in the Naval Reserve with nearly 24 years experience.

Dr. Lowell and his wife, Margaret, have five children. One attends Eastern and one is in the Navy. Dr. Lowell graduated in 1948 from Western Michigan University, received his M.A. from the University of Michigan in 1953 and his doctor's degree from Michigan State University in 1962.

TOM KATSIMPALIS

Director of Athletics

Tom Katsimpalis, one of Eastern Illinois' all-time basketball greats, is serving his third year as director of athletics.

Katsimpalis came to Eastern from Gary, Ind., and played four seasons on Panther squads that had a combined won-lost record of 87-17 and advanced to the national tournament three times.

He is one of three EIU athletic figures to be inducted into the Helms Foundation Hall of Fame. (For descriptions of EIU's other Hall of Fame selections, Charles P. Lantz and Maynard (Pat) O'Brien, see pages 31 and 36.)

Before graduating in 1952, "Tom Kat" set Eastern game, season and career scoring records (since broken) and earned all-IIAC and All-American recognition.

After graduation, Katsimpalis coached at Altamont and Clinton high schools. He returned to Eastern in 1959 to become assistant to the athletic director. He became director in 1964.

Katsimpalis married Eastern's 1951 Homecoming queen, the former Marilyn Jeanette "Sug" Morford. They have two children.

CLYDE BIGGERS

Head Football Coach

Clyde Biggers took on a man-sized task a year ago when he started building Eastern's football fortunes, but there is no doubt that he is big enough to get the job done. He stands 6-foot-7, and the scope of his football plans matches his towering frame.

Biggers has always been associated with winning football teams . . . from his playing days as a Little All-America collegian and a defensive lineman with the Green Bay Packers, to his coaching days with high school, intermediate, and big college teams.

It appears to be just a matter of time before he's associated with a winner at EIU, too—and the way he masters time, that day may not be too distant. He came to Charleston nearly a month before officially starting his duties a year ago and got a quick start introducing his total program for football excellence. Since that time, his office light has burned virtually every night as he and his staff work endless hours to build a football tradition.

The progress has been satisfying to this football man in motion.

"I feel we are at least on schedule with our overall football program," he says in review of his first year. "We have been able to secure one of the best freshman squads in school history—and it's at least a third larger than last year's freshman team. Secondly, our theories of football are now well established. And finally, we have an excellent staff. It's merely a matter of time until we see a decided change in football here. My chief concern is that we build a good, solid football program here, and despite the fact that this does require time we have every confidence we will achieve this goal."

Biggers himself is proof that academic excellence and athletic success go hand in hand. He ranked first in his class at Catawba (N. C.) College, where he graduated magna cum laude in 1947. At the same time he was earning Phi Beta Kappa honors in the classroom, he was earning All-Conference, All-State, and Little All-America honors on the gridiron. He was also president of the student body his senior year.

He was lineman for the Green Bay Packers of the National Football League in 1948 and 1949, and then began his coaching career at Fayetteville (N. C.) High School. His 1951 team won the AAAA state championship, and his two-year record was 18-2.

In 1952, Biggers was defensive coach at East Carolina College of the Southern Athletic Conference. The team had an 8-2 record.

From 1953 through 1958, he was head coach at Catawba, where his record was 37-20-3. He was chosen North Carolina's "College Coach of the Year" once and was runnerup three times.

For the next six years he was defensive coach under Warren Giese and later Marvin Bass at the University of South Carolina. His defensive units were consistently among the best in the Atlantic Coast Conference.

ASSISTANT FOOTBALL COACHES

ROBERT EUDEIKIS

Bob Eudeikis, entering his fourth season as line coach for the Panthers, is assuming added responsibility this fall. He is Coach Biggers' administrative assistant and in addition oversees the large inventory of equipment. He works on the game staff.

Eudeikis was a star defensive end at Illinois State University, where he graduated in 1954. He coached at Momence and Zion-Benton Township high schools before returning to ISU for his master's degree in 1960. He then coached at LeRoy High School before joining the EIU staff.

Also a standout in track and field, Eudeikis was NAIA javelin champion in 1953 with a throw of 197 feet, 13/4 inches. He is assistant coach of Eastern's cinder squad in the spring.

RICHARD VAUGHAN

Dick Vaughan, a former EIU quarterback, is in his third tour of duty with the Panthers.

He was on the varsity grid squad for three seasons before graduating in 1959, and he came back in 1961 to work with back-field candidates as a graduate assistant. Now he's entering his second season as a fulltime member of EIU's staff.

In addition to coaching defensive backs, Vaughan serves the key function of keeping files and records on Eastern's recruiting prospects. He also serves on the game staff. During the winter, he assists with the gymnastics squad.

WILLIAM McCABE

Bill McCabe is rejoining the staff this season after a year's leave of absence to complete work on a doctorate at Indiana University.

McCabe formerly coached EIU's freshman squad, but this fall he will instruct the varsity's offensive backs and will be on the game staff.

Also Eastern's head baseball coach, McCabe lettered in baseball at the University of Iowa and played professionally for the Old Milwaukee Brewers of the American Association.

A native of Wausau, Wis., McCabe graduated from Iowa in 1949 and received an M.A. from Iowa in 1950. He taught four years in Clayton, Mo., and Centerville, Iowa, public schools prior to serving one year on the physical education staff at Northern Illinois University. Then he served six years at Franklin (Ind.) College, where he was athletic director in addition to coaching football, basketball and baseball. He came to Eastern in 1962.

McCabe, 43, is married. The McCabes have two daughters and one son.

FRANK CHIZEVSKY, JR.

Frank Chizevsky, Jr., the newest member of EIU's grid staff, has a famous football name in East - Central Illinois—both inherited and achieved.

His father, Frank Sr., has been a highly regarded coach at Newton High School the past 20 years. And Frank Jr., has made a name for himself at Millikin University, where he capped a brilliant collegiate career by being named NAIA All-American in 1954. He was also all-conference fullback three consecutive years.

Chizevsky comes here from Southern Illinois University, where he coached defensive backs the past two years. He will instruct Eastern's line-backers this fall and work with the offensive front.

Chizevsky was drafted by the Los Angeles Rams upon his graduation in 1955, but he didn't try out for pro ball because he was also drafted by the U. S. Army at the same time. From 1957 to 1963, he coached in Decatur public schools—two years as head grid coach at Lakeview, and five years as assistant at Stephen Decatur. He also coached wrestling, and will assist in that sport at EIU.

Chizevsky is 32 years old and married. He received a master's degree from Millikin in 1962.

BEN NEWCOMB

Ben Newcomb, a native of South Dakota, is entering his second season as freshman football coach. He also assists with varsity backs and heads the scouting operation.

Newcomb played four years of football, four years of baseball, and one year of basketball at Augustana (S. Dak.) College, where he graduated in 1957. He was both captain and coach of Augie's baseball team his senior year.

A semi-professional baseball player for two seasons, Newcomb served as interim coach last spring while Bill McCabe was on leave. He will be McCabe's assistant next spring. Newcomb coached basketball, football, and golf for seven years at Sioux Falls (S. Dak.) junior and senior high schools prior to coming to EIU.

Newcomb, 30, is married and has five children. He received his master's degree in 1958 from Eastern New Mexico, where he assisted with the football squad.

PANTHER PREVIEW

For the first time in the memory of Eastern's student body, the Panthers approach a football campaign without ace Roger Haberer at quarterback.

And for Coach Clyde Biggers, that's just the beginning of his problems this fall.

In addition to replacing a quarterback who passed for 3,647 yards in a four-year career, Biggers must rebuild virtually his entire backfield and pass receiving corps.

Fortunately, the Panthers have a likely looking offensive line, but the perennial problem of numerical weakness plagues the squad even here.

The backfield is the critical situation.

When the Panthers reported for spring practice, all four of their 1965 starters were missing from the backfield. What's more, only one starter was available from the freshman backfield since three were competing in other spring sports.

Among the missing was fullback Ken Heffley, Eastern's top ground gainer with 544 yards as a sophomore last fall. Heffley, the Panthers' only holdover backfield starter, has high blood pressure and may be sidelined for the season.

If Heffley is unable to play, the Panthers will have lost (1) their top four scorers, (2) their top two runners, (3) and their top three pass receivers in addition to (4) their starting—and only—quarterback from the 1965 season.

No wonder Biggers declines to predict any sort of win-loss record for his second season at EIU.

"We must be realistic," he says. "We will have to have an all-out effort to have a winning season this year. We still have many of the same problems as last year with depth questionable everywhere."

"Still, we approach the whole picture optimistically, for we know that football is not a short-term project. The squad is more familiar with our system this year, and we expect an enthusiastic group. We also have an extremely capable staff that will get the maximum from the material. If our players can go beyond what we would normally expect in dedication, we could have a winning season."

The Panthers' main source of strength could be the offensive line. Tackles Marvin Randolph and Larry Baird may be the two finest blockers in the IIAC. Ends Dale Doehring and Frank Farr, guard Mike Mannix, and center Toby Scott are also experienced and capable.

But questions cloud the backfield.

Quarterbacking will be inexperienced, regardless of who wins the position. Hometown sophomore Joe Davis and transfer Bill Lane were leading candidates during the spring. Sophomore Dennis Bundy will do a good job at fullback if Heffley is gone, but he too is inexperienced. There will be more experience at the other two spots. John Cappello, a defensive starter last season, is a good blocker and can take over the wingback position. No. 2 running back Charlie Turner returns to bid for a starting role at left half.

The problem of depth shows up in that analysis, because three of those players come from the hard-pressed defensive unit. Bundy and Lane would normally start in the secondary, while Cappello did start there last year.

Biggers is working overtime to correct that problem, but as he says it is not a short-term project. This fall's incoming freshman squad is the first group that he has recruited. It's an outstanding group, both in quality and quantity, but none of the players can see varsity action until another year rolls by.

PANTHER PROSPECTUS

LETTERMEN LOST (13)—Richard Duff (G-T), John Ganley (DG), Roger Haberer (QB), Tad Heminger (FLB), Pete Jensen (G), Melvin Laws (T), Chuck Peabody (T), Ray Schaljo (E), Ted Schmitz (LB), Lynn Strack (HB), Andy Ventress (DHB), Willie Wellhausen (FB), Joe Moulden (E). (Schaljo was on All-IIAC offensive unit, Ganley and Schmitz on All-IIAC defensive unit. Haberer and Schmitz were co-captains. Schmitz was MVP.)

LETTERMEN RETURNING (17)—Larry Baird (G-T), Russ Benjamin (DG), John Cappello (HB), Dale Doehring (E), Frank Farr (E), Harold (Gus) Holly (DHB), Jim Jorgensen (LB), Curt Leonard (DHB), Dick McCoy (E), Mike Mannix (G-DE), Tim Mash (HB), Marvin Randolph (T), Toby Scott (C), Bob Sivulich (G-LB), Charles Turner (HB), Ed Wold (K).

SIZE—The Panthers' line candidates average 204 pounds. Backfield candidates average 173 pounds.

KICKING—Place kicking duties will be handled by Ed Wold, who has scored on 14 of 21 conversion attempts the past three years. He can reach the end zone on kick offs. Punting will again be handled by Larry Baird, who averaged 35.6 yards per kick last season.

PASSING—Completely untested with record holding Roger Haberer among the graduates. He had no backup quarterback last season, so the job will go to a rookie. Sophomore Joe Davis has the pre-season edge.

RECEIVING—Graduation also claimed EIU's top receivers, but the Panthers still have players who can catch the ball. Return of 1964 letterman Dick McCoy adds strength to offense.

RUNNING—Top ground gainer Ken Heffley is out, but even so the Panthers figure to continue bolstering their ground game. Holdover Charlie Turner and rookies Dennis Bundy and Bill Walton have power.

OFFENSE—The Panthers don't have the sensational air game of years past, but they may find more ways to score. Ground game developed last year and will continue to improve and blocking looks strong. Panthers might control the ball this year.

DEFENSE—Expect continued improvement here, too. Secondary was embarrassing at times last season, but the addition of 1964 vet Gus Holly and transfer Bill Lane will strengthen pass coverage.

SUMMATION—Panthers have come a long way in the past year, but there's still a long way to go. Added depth from spirited sophomores will make EIU a tough foe regardless of the score. Fierce defense and power offense likely.

LETTERMEN

78 LARRY BAIRD—Guard; Sr.; 6-0; 205; Homer—One of top blockers on the squad and in the IIAC last season, he has added five pounds and may shift to offensive tackle. Will also see spot work on defense. Handles punting duties and had a 35.6-yard average last year. EIU letters: three football. Major: Geography.

77 RUSS BENJAMIN—Def. guard; Jr.; 6-2; 285; Monticello—One of the biggest players in the IIAC, he will be an outstanding interior lineman if he keeps his weight under control. Was starting middle guard last year despite reporting late. A defensive specialist. One of two three-sport lettermen at EIU (Fernando Velasco of soccer team is the other). EIU letters: one football, one wrestling, one track. Major: Business.

42 JOHN CAPPELLO—Halfback; Jr.; 5-8; 175; Chicago (St. Francis de Sales)—Primarily a defensive back last season, he looms as a probable offensive starter at wingback. Small but stocky, he's an excellent blocker and a hard runner. EIU letters: one football. Major: Physical Education.

24 HAROLD (GUS) HOLLY—Def. halfback; Jr.; 5-10; 170; Chicago (DuSable)—Returned to school last spring and nailed down a starting defensive backfield position he had held in 1964 season. A sure tackler and good pass defender, he should be a big help to the defensive secondary. Might see some offensive duty, too. EIU letters: one football. Major: Physical Education.

53 JIM JORGENSEN—Linebacker; Sr.; 5-10; 190; Ingleside (Grant)—Entering his third season as a regular linebacker, he will probably call defensive signals this year. A hard tackler. Can also play center on offense. In high school he was captain and most valuable lineman in football, captain and MVP in baseball. EIU letters: two football. Major: Social Science.

25 CURT LEONARD—Def. halfback; Jr.; 5-8; 175; Chenoa—A hard hitter, he should see considerable duty on defense this season. Sidelined by injury until mid-season last year, he played an outstanding game against IAC champ Northern Illinois. EIU letters: one football. Major: Business.

82 DICK McCOY—End; Jr.; 6-1; 205; Robinson—A 1964 letterman who returned to school this spring. A fair blocker and a better than average receiver, he has an excellent chance of grabbing an offensive position. EIU letters: one football. Major: Physical Education.

66 MIKE MANNIX—Guard - Def. end; Sr.; 5-11; 200; Ovid, N. Y. (Central)—Headed for his third season as a starter on offense. Also a strong relief man as a defensive end. Dependable and a fine leader, he captained football, basketball and baseball squads in high school and won 12 prep letters. EIU letters: two football. Major: Physical Education.

43 TIM MASH—Halfback; Sr.; 5-7; 155; Danville (Kittanning, Pa.)—The smallest player in the IIAC last season, this Mighty Mite is a hard hitter who asks no quarter. Has a great deal of desire and is an asset to the EIU secondary. Led squad with five pass interceptions last season. Also caught two on offense. EIU letters: two football. Major: Physical Education.

74 MARVIN RANDOLPH—Tackle; Sr.; 6-2; 285; Oblong—Much of the Panthers' rushing yardage came behind Randolph's straight-ahead blocking last season. Has attracted the interest of several pro scouts, but must conquer weight problem to be a real prospect. Probably the IIAC's top offensive tackle despite his size. EIU letters: two football. Major: History.

52 TOBY SCOTT—Center; Sr.; 6-0; 205; Georgetown—A dedicated football player and an outstanding team leader. Excels as an offensive center and handles long snaps flawlessly. Won nine letters and was Vermilion County all-star in high school. An offensive starter at EIU last season. EIU letters: two football. Major: Industrial Arts.

67 BOB SIVULICH—Guard-linebacker; Sr.; 5-11; 190; Munster, Ind. (Bishop Noll of Hammond)—Played despite a knee injury last season, should be better than ever this fall. Looked good at offensive right guard in spring practice, and also can go at defensive linebacker. Should be in fine battle trim after a summer in Officer Candidate School with U. S. Marine Corps at Quantico. Transfer from Indiana U. EIU letters: two football. Major: Social Science.

21 CHARLES TURNER—Halfback; Sr.; 6-0; 196; Maywood (Proviso East)—Reported late last season but developed into a dangerous runner by season's end. A good hurdler in track, he has fair speed and will be a top candidate for running halfback this fall. EIU letters: two football, three track. Major: Physical Education.

61 ED WOLD—Placekicker; Sr.; 5-8; 170; Earlville—Entering his fourth season as the Panthers' placekicker. Has conversion records of six of seven as a freshman, nine of 13 as a sophomore and five of eight as a junior for a 14-of-21 total. He and lineman Larry Baird beat the IIAC freshman rule by one season and are the last of the four-year lettermen in football. EIU letters: three. Major: History.

LEADING CANDIDATES

33 DENNIS BUNDY—Fullback; So.; 6-0; 193; Fairfield—Moved into starting backfield to replace ailing Ken Heffley last spring and ran like a veteran. Was top ballcarrier on the frosh team last fall. A powerful runner and very aggressive, he is also one of the squad's top linebacking candidates. Could go both ways. Major: Physical Education.

72 BILL VANGEL—Tackle; So.; 6-2; 210; St. Louis, Mo. (McKinley of Columbus, Ohio)—Expected to claim a starting position at defensive tackle. Aggressive, hard hitter and a fine hustler. Transfer from William Jewell College. Major: Physical Education.

76 MARTY COLEMAN—Tackle-Def. end; Jr.; 6-1; 205; Shawneetown—Slated for first string defensive end position and will also see action as offensive tackle. Has speed, strength and quickness. Lacks only experience since his high school did not field a football team. Major: Physical Education.

12 JOE DAVIS—Quarterback; So.; 6-0; 170; Charleston—Appeared to be one of top two QB choices after a fine spring practice. Still green, but he's dedicated and a good natural athlete. Still growing, too. Major: Physical Education.

75 PAUL FJELL—Tackle; So.; 6-2; 205; Elmwood Park—Slated to become first string defensive tackle. Loves contact, and has strength and toughness to make it count. Better than average speed. Lacks only experience. Transfer from Murray State. Major: Physical Education.

35 LESTER GIESE—Fullback-linebacker; So.; 5-11; 185; Morrison—Likes to play, and he's likely to find a spot somewhere. Ran at fullback in spring, but he'll gun for first team linebacking berth in fall. A sure tackler with adequate speed. Major: Mathematics.

34 JIM HILGER—Fullback-linebacker; So.; 6-0; 180; Oaklawn. Injured in spring practice but expected to be fully recovered. Has fine chance to start in defensive secondary. Impressed coaches with his aggressiveness, and sure, hard tackling. Major: Business.

62 CHUCK STOTZ—Guard-linebacker; Sr.; 5-8; 175; LaGrange (Lyons)—Used as a spot man last fall, will see similar action this season. Ex-Marine.

11 BILL LANE—Quarterback; Jr.; 6-1; 165; Sullivan—Hasn't played a game at quarterback, but ranks among top two candidates at that spot. Coaches prefer to use him in defensive backfield where his height, range, and coordination are sorely needed. Was tabbed a defensive starter last season, but a transfer technicality ruled him out the day prior to opening game. Transfer from University of New Mexico. Major: Physical Education.

88 EDDIE STEPHENS—End; So.; 6-2; 185; Chicago (St. Philips Basilica)—Outstanding in spring practice. Could develop into one of the finest defensive ends on the squad. Tall, fast, and aggressive. Major: Social Science.

86 LARRY STROMBERG—End; So.; 6-2; 180; Cary (Cary-Grove)—Another outstanding defensive prospect. Not swift, but an aggressive tackler. Has a good chance to start at squad's deepest position. Major: Industrial Arts.

71 DICK SUMPTION—Tackle; So.; 6-2; 200; St. Joseph—Has seen sparing action in the past, but showed great improvement this spring. Will be on alternate unit, available for two-way duty. Transfer from DePauw. Major: Business.

64 ED TAYLOR—Guard; So.; 6-2; 205; Bonfield (St. Patrick Central of Kankakee)—Has size and desire. Shows signs of developing into a fine offensive lineman. Green but strong. Major: Social Science.

32 BILL WALTON—Halfback; So.; 6; 190; Bloomington—Combines strength and speed—was both a weightman and dashman in high school track. A lineman in high school, he showed potential to be a strong running back on last year's freshman team. Might also play defense. Was a shot putter in track last spring. EIU letters: one track. Major: Social Science.

63 GERALD WISE—Guard-linebacker; So.; 5-8; 165; Peoria (Woodruff)—Lacks size but is highly aggressive. Will see action as spot player. Served four years in U. S. Air Force. Major: History.

THE 1965 CAMPAIGN

Game 1

Indiana State 17, EIU 0

Played at Terre Haute, Ind., Sept. 18

Eastern made its debut under Coach Clyde Biggers by battling highly favored Indiana State on even terms in everything but the score. Outgained by only two yards, the Panthers were stopped twice on the 1-yard line, once on the 5 and once on the 10.

Indiana State	0	7	3	7	—	17

IS—Nesbitt, 29-field goal

IS—Nesbitt, 15-pass from Hoke (Nesbitt kick)

Game 2

EIU 35, Ferris State 22

Played at Charleston, Sept. 25

A 21-point rally in the fourth quarter brought EIU victory and its highest scoring total in 11 years. The Panthers amassed 490 yards total offense, with rookie fullback Ken Heffley and veteran halfback Lynn Strack combining for 241 on the ground. Roger Haberer passed for 137 yards.

Game 3

EIU 28, UW-Milwaukee 24

Played at Milwaukee, Wis., Oct. 2

With only 29 seconds left, flanker Tad Heminger gathered in a 38-yard scoring pass from Roger Haberer to climax what Coach Biggers described as "the greatest comeback I've ever witnessed in football." Eastern scored twice in the last two minutes, with the last TD drive covering 67 yards on two passes. Haberer racked up an EIU record 288 yards through the air, with Heminger gaining 160.

Game 4

EIU 8, Illinois State 7

Played at Normal, Oct. 9

Roger Haberer passed the Panthers to their third straight win with a eight-yard TD pass to Ray Schaljo and a two-point conversion toss to Lynn Strack. Haberer, among the nation's air leaders, had 222 yards for a four-game total of 816 yards. But the game had an ominous note. Star flanker-back Tad Heminger suffered a leg injury that was to sideline him the remainder of the season and cripple EIU's air game.

Game 5Northwood Institute 42, EIU 7

Played at Charleston, Oct. 16

A successful goal-line stand followed by a 93-yard scoring pass gave Northwood a 14-7 halftime lead and the momentum for a 28-point splurge in the second half. Roger Haberer passed for 221 yards, raising his season total to 1,037 yards, but five interceptions kept the Panthers on defense.

Game 6Western Illinois 28, EIU 8

Played at Charleston, Oct. 23

It was an ill wind that blew no good for EIU's passing attack and spoiled the Panthers' Homecoming hopes. Western ignored the air lanes completely, instead launched 60 ground plays for 365 yards. Noria Steward and Jim Johnson combined 261 yards for the Leathernecks.

EIU—Wellhausen, 2-plunge (Haberer to Strack pass)

Game 7Northern Illinois 20, EIU 11

Played at Charleston, Oct. 30

The fired-up Panthers almost scored the upset of the year against unbeaten IAC champion Northern Illinois, and they pushed national total offense leader Ron Christian around in the process. Tackle Melvin Laws batted one of Christian's passes into the arms of defensive end Dale Doebling for a TD, and another interception was converted into a field goal for a 9-7 halftime lead. Guard John Ganley tackled Christian in the end zone for a safety in the second half, but NIU scored twice to avert the upset.

NI—Vesley, 35-run (Henigan kick)

EIU—Safety, Christian tackled in end zone by Ganley

Game 8Central Michigan 48, EIU 6

Played at Mt. Pleasant, Mich., Nov. 6

Central Michigan quarterback Pat Boyd set six school records by hitting 21 of 31 passes for 345 yards. An 88-yard touchdown pass on Central's first play from scrimmage started the rout. A bright spot for the Panthers was Hefley's 112 yards rushing in 24 carries, giving him a sophomore total of 554 yards.

Sycamore Outlook

New coach Jerry Huntsman inherits 18 lettermen, but the Sycamores are not quite as experienced as that figure indicates. Only four players have lettered twice.

Main concern in spring practice was re-constructing the offense, which lost top scorer John Nesbitt and power full-back Emmitt Tyler. Good yardage might come through the air with pro prospect John Truitt (6-5, 225) cavorting at end. Much depends on emergence of juniors and sophomores.

Bulldog Outlook

Coach Sam Ketchman faces plenty of headaches with only 11 lettermen returning from a second straight winless season. Only one member of his offensive and defensive backfields returns, and that player (Tom Spencer) is being converted from halfback to quarterback to fill the biggest void.

Two-way performers Jon Rivers and Mike Warren beef up a more experienced line, and recruits from the school's first spring practice in history add a note of cheer.

Panther Outlook

Milwaukee figures to have another high scoring team this season, but the development of unproven talent in the defensive secondary could hold the key to success.

Competition in the backfield is so keen that fullback John Fitch, the club's top rusher in 1965, must battle transfer student Bill Lacey for his job. Record setting pass catcher Terry Fredenberg is back at split end, and tight end Tom Myszewski can go out and grab 'em, too. Leigh Cherveny, last year's MVP, heads a fast set of guards. If the defense can stand up against a power-packed schedule, it could be a big year for the big city Panthers.

Redbird Outlook

Junior quarterback Larry Kinnikin is expected to lead a balanced air-ground attack from a new "I" formation as Coach Larry Bitcon works to bring the Redbirds back from a winless 1965 season. Kinnikin was almost the entire offensive show for the '65 ISU squad, throwing for 1,273 yards and seven touchdowns while completing 101 of 223 tosses.

A group of good sophomores and eight or 10 key transfers were impressive in a full-scale spring game and are expected to improve the defensive potential, with the secondary still a problem as the Redbird mentor starts his second season.

Northman Outlook

Coach Louis Juillerat blames over-conservatism for an offense that fell a total of 10 points short in three losses last year, so he plans to use the whole playbook this season.

The result should be an exciting campaign for the recently-established senior college, which has its first senior griddier on the roster this fall in Captain Leo Martinosi, a four-year regular at center.

Nine regulars return to the defense, including Big Ben Bradley, a tackle who looms large in national consideration.

Leatherneck Outlook

Graduation thinned out Western Illinois' complete back-field and leads Coach Art Dufelmeier to label this "the most inexperienced team we have had."

The Leathernecks' big plus is a veteran defense headed by all-conference pick Bill Brockhouse at end and line-backer Joe McLaughlin. But the offensive unit will be almost entirely new, and small to boot. Duffelmeier considers the outlook "very slim," although WIU's winning tradition is still strong.

Chippewa Outlook

Central's biggest problem might be fitting all its lettermen on the traveling bus. There are no fewer than 34 monogram winners, and they're a hungry crew with only 10 seniors in the bunch.

The deep, talented squad has six all-IIAC players—halfbacks Jim Acitelli and Wally Hempton, guard Paul Verska, linebacker Lyle Spalding, center Tom Stoops and defensive back Don Krueger. Acitelli led the squad in rushing and Hempton in pass receiving as sophomores.

Coach Bill Kelly did lose quarterback Pat Boyd, who broke 15 school passing records—including several of Kelly's. But sophomore Bob Miles looks like a capable replacement, so the Chips rank as solid IIAAC favorites.

Huron Outlook

Eastern Michigan has rejoined the IIAC after a four-year hitch in the Presidents' Athletic Conference, but the Hurons are playing an independent schedule until 1967.

The schedule—tougher than last year's—and an injury to quarterback Ed Mass temper the Hurons' enthusiasm over having some 31 lettermen on hand. Mass suffered a shoulder separation in spring practice and has since been untested in contact. Coach Jerry Raymond may get added help from freshmen, who are eligible this fall for the last time.

EIU'S COACHES

CHARLES P. LANTZ

Clyde Biggers is the 16th man to serve as head football coach at Eastern Illinois University.

Longest tenure was held by the late Charles P. Lantz, who led EIU for 25 years—including one year during World War II when he returned to the coach's bench after a 10-year retirement from active football duties.

"Pop" Lantz, the "Grand Old Man of Illinois Athletics," came to Eastern in 1911 and became a legend in his time. He was EIU's athletic director until 1952 and coached basketball (1911-35) and baseball (1911-52) in addition to football. He was elected to the Helms Foundation Hall of Fame for his services and accomplishments in athletics. He died in 1962 at the age of 77.

Maynard (Pat) O'Brien, now cross country and track coach at EIU, coached the Panthers' only bowl team. His 1948 squad marked the half-century anniversary of Eastern football by winning the IAC title and receiving a bid to the Corn Bowl game at Bloomington. Illinois Wesleyan defeated the Panthers in that game, 6-0.

CROSS COUNTRY

Head Coach Maynard (Pat) O'Brien

Maynard (Pat) O'Brien, beginning his ninth season as head cross country coach, is widely recognized for his coaching abilities. In 1965 he was inducted into the NAIA Hall of Fame for his work in track and field, and he has held numerous national offices.

He is currently serving his second year as chairman of the NAIA's indoor track program, and has been NAIA District 20 cross country chairman from 1958 to present. He was a member of the national cross country committee for three years and its chairman in 1961-62.

A native of Canton, O'Brien won 11 collegiate letters in three sports and was an all-Little 19 Conference tackle at IWU. He compiled coaching records of 62-22-11 in football and 216-94 in basketball from 1931 to 1942 at four high schools—Lewistown, Mt. Olive, Carlinville and Decatur. He was head football coach at Eastern for nine seasons and introduced wrestling to the sports program in 1948.

O'Brien serves administratively as chairman of the Division of Men's Physical Education. He has master's and doctor's degrees from the University of Illinois.

Assistant Coach Thomas Woodall

Thomas Woodall, head cross country coach at South Dakota State University for two years, will assist O'Brien again this fall.

A 1957 graduate of Iowa Wesleyan, Woodall received his master's degree from Colorado State College (1960) and his Ph.D. from the University of Iowa (1963).

Woodall competed for the University of Chicago Track Club while teaching and coaching at Dolton and Milledgeville schools in Illinois (1957-1960). He coached at University High in Iowa City before joining the South Dakota State staff in 1962. He came to EIU in 1965.

1965 IIAAC CO-CHAMPIONS

1966 CROSS COUNTRY PREVIEW

Eastern has everyone back from its co-championship team of 1965, but Coach Maynard (Pat) O'Brien expects the IIAAC title to be as hotly contested as it was last fall when one slim point separated three teams. Central Michigan, ahead by one point, used an ineligible runner and yielded to Eastern and Western Illinois. All three clubs appear strong again, and Illinois State has both good newcomers and the home course.

Seniors should dominate this fall's club. Roger Quinlan and John Schneider, both former captains and MVP selections, and Bob Weise will be running for their fourth letters. Track captain Jim Morris is another senior. Jeff Murdy, Jerry Robbins and Mike Snow lettered as sophomores. That will be a hard lineup for newcomers to crack. Best bet to make it is sophomore Art Lawson.

"We must have a good year from everyone to win again," says O'Brien.

SOCCER

Coach Francis L. (Fritz) Teller

Francis L. (Fritz) Teller, a former semi-professional soccer player, will field his second soccer team at EIU this fall.

Teller played right wing for the Ukrainian-American team in New York City's American Soccer League in 1958 and 1959 after experience at Hilton (N. Y.) High School and Brockport State University, New York.

He graduated from Brockport in 1956 and received his master's degree from Columbia in 1958. Teller coached soccer and baseball at New Lincoln High School in New York City, then organized and coached the soccer club at Northern Illinois University in 1961-63. He joined EIU's staff in the fall of 1963, and coached the non-varsity team for two seasons prior to last fall.

Teller is married and has two children.

Assistant Coach Robert Hussey

Robert Hussey, Eastern's head gymnastics coach, will guide the non-varsity soccer team for the first time this fall.

Hussey joined Eastern's staff in 1958 and has previously been an assistant coach in football. Prior to coming to EIU, he coached football, basketball, and track at Manistique, Michigan High School from 1949 to 1952, and football and track at Washington Junior High of Racine, Wis., from 1952 to 1958.

He competed in baseball and gymnastics at LaCrosse (Wis.) State College before graduating in 1949. He has a master's degree from Michigan State and has completed course work toward an Ed. D. at Colorado State College. He is married and has seven children.

1966 SOCCER PREVIEW

Bruno Mangiardi

Eastern had its best soccer team in the school's brief competition in the sport last fall. This year's club could be as good, perhaps even better.

Only the absence of an experienced goalie forces Coach Fritz Teller to curb his optimism. And the Panthers might not be bad off at that spot, even though they'll most certainly miss the graduated Ron Semetis, an artful netminder who achieved a record five shutouts last season.

Teller remains excited over his club's prospects for this fall, and with good reason.

First, the Panthers have all but two starters back from a club that posted a 7-4 record, including a double-overtime loss to MacMurray in the championship game of the NAIA District 20 Tournament.

Second, the returnees include all of their top scorers—and they will be joined this fall by sophomore Bruno Mangiardi, who eight years ago brought a gifted toe and plenty of soccer savvy from Italy to America.

Third, the Panthers have three poised defenders who might make things easier for a beginning goalie.

And finally, the goaltending problem may be solved by Ken Levy, a junior who showed promise while spelling Semetis on occasion last season.

Eastern should have an offense that will make life tough for opposing goalies. Fernando Velasco, one of the school's two three-sport lettermen, set an EIU record with 11 goals last fall. The Panthers' next four scorers also return: Jerry DeWitt (5), Lyle Honnold (3), Joel Otieno (3) and Bob Harshbarger (3).

Add Mangiardi, who tallied nine goals in four non-varsity games last fall, and you have an explosive offense. Mangiardi was the top scorer in the Chicagoland area in 1964—and his brother, Vitro, is on Eastern's non-varsity squad this fall.

The backfield will be built around Harshbarger, Nelson Archer and Cecil Withrow. Harshbarger, an all-district choice as a sophomore, and Archer were all-tournament picks last season.

"If the defense holds up," Teller says, "this could be Eastern's best team."

1966-67 BASKETBALL PROSPECTS

Eastern's cagers will be playing their first season in the magnificent new Charles P. Lantz Physical Education and Recreation Building, and they hope to make it a memorable one.

The Panthers expect to be on the upswing again after a dizzying slide from first to last place in successive seasons. Coach Rex Darling has six holdover lettermen plus a good crop of sophomores from the Panthers' best-ever freshman team.

Heading the veterans is Don Templeman, 6-3 pivotman who ranked third in scoring with a 14.2 average last season. Other returnees are forecourt players Bob Allred (6-2) and Denny Hoffmeister (6-5), and backcourtters Richard Barni (6-3), Dave Pavelonis (6-1) and Ron Masters (6-0).

A pair of outstanding guards from last year's freshman team—All-Stater Jim LeMaster and Bob Warnsley—will add plenty of dash to the Panthers, and there should be solid forecourt help also from a club that posted a 7-1 record. Help is also expected from one or two junior college transfers.
